INFORMATION RELEASE

Battle of Solano County Law Enforcement for Kids Solano County Sheriff's Office

August 25, 2008

Solano County Law Enforcement Agencies will be "battling it out" for the sake of kids, in a friendly but competitive, double elimination co-ed softball tournament.

In an effort to raise funds for the Boys and Girls Clubs and after school programs throughout Solano County, local law enforcement will be holding the first annual tournament on September 13, 2008. The event will take place at Nelson Park, in the City of Vacaville (Nut Tree and Marshall Road). The event is set to begin at 8:00 a.m. and will end upon its completion.

Bring your family out for this fun filled event to include, an appearance by Kelly the Clown, jump houses, raffles, and a Dunk-a-Cop tank. Emergency vehicles and equipment will also be on display, courtesy of local law enforcement agencies. Teams consist of personnel with the Solano County Sheriff's Office, Vacaville Police department, Vallejo Police department, Suisun Police department, Fairfield Police department, Rio Vista Police department, Solano-California Highway Patrol, and Solano-District Attorney Investigators.

Life changing program's such as the Boys and Girls Club are essential to children. Such programs develop self esteem, encouraging youth to succeed, and promote good decision making. So, put on a hat and slap on some sunscreen and spend the day supporting "kids and cops". We look forward to seeing you and your family at the park.
