INFORMATION RELEASE

District Attorney Investigator Placed Under Citizen's Arrest
Solano County Sheriff's Office

August 31, 2009

On August 31, 2009, at approximately 2:50 PM, the Solano County Sheriff's Office was called to the Solano County Government Center (675 Texas Street, Fairfield) to keep the peace during a citizen's arrest. Mr. Thomas Toler confronted District Attorney Chief Investigator Al Garza outside of the Solano County Government Center and placed him under arrest for perjury relating to his testimony in a prior case. Mr. Toler then turned Investigator Garza over to deputies from the Solano County Sheriff's Office who took custody of Garza. At the time of arrest Toler failed to provide deputies with sufficient information to substantiate the arrest and Chief Investigator Garza was released from custody while investigation into the incident continues.
