Probation Department Statistics

Melissa Johnson

Criminal Justice Researcher

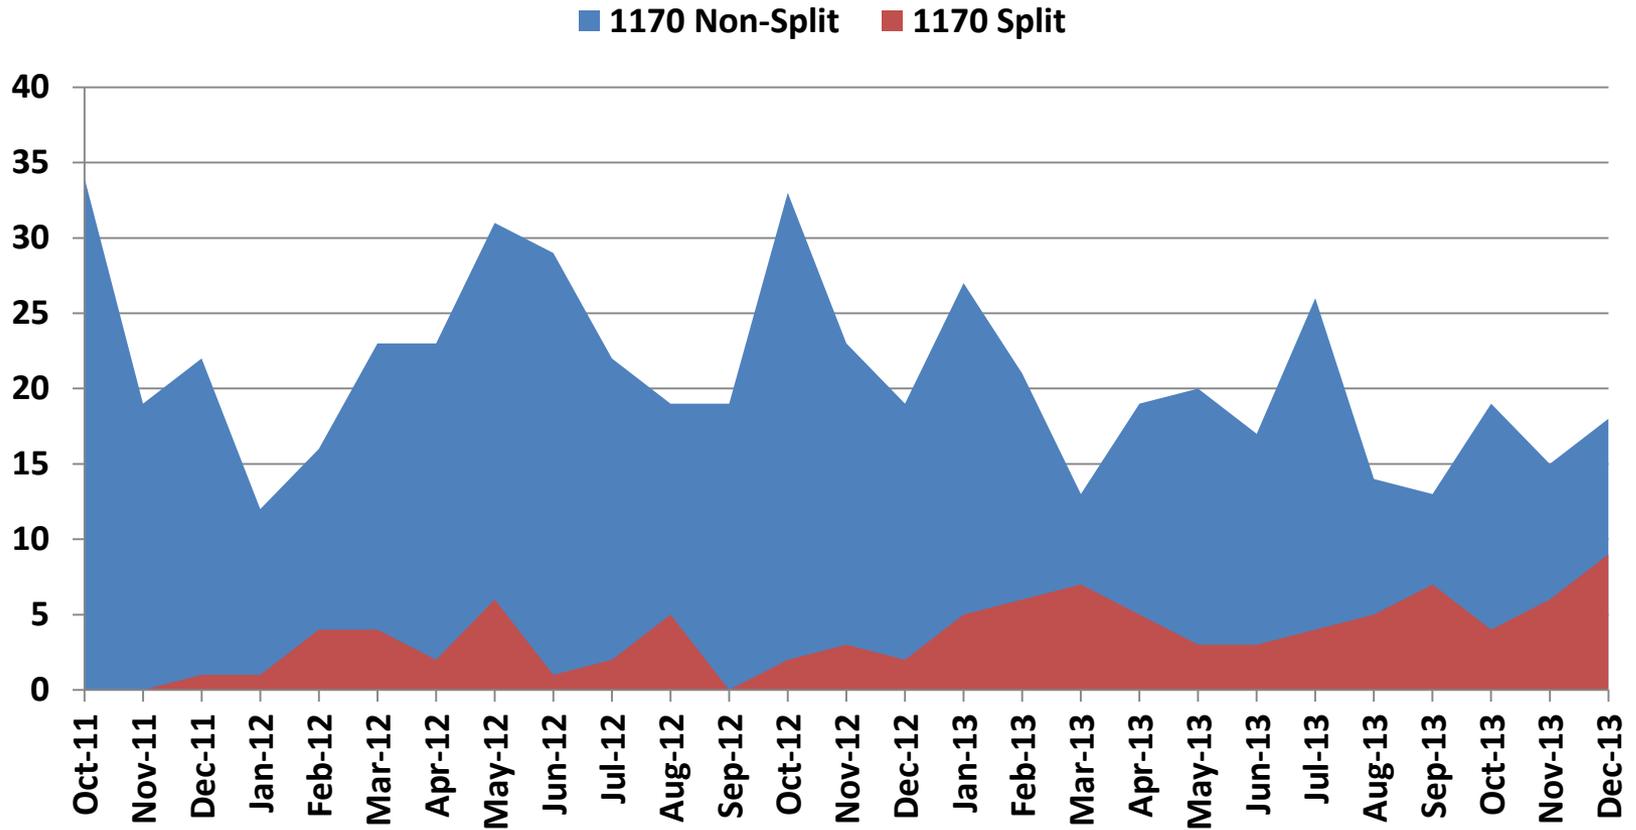

As of Dec 31 2013, there are 334 AB 109 Probationers on active supervision.

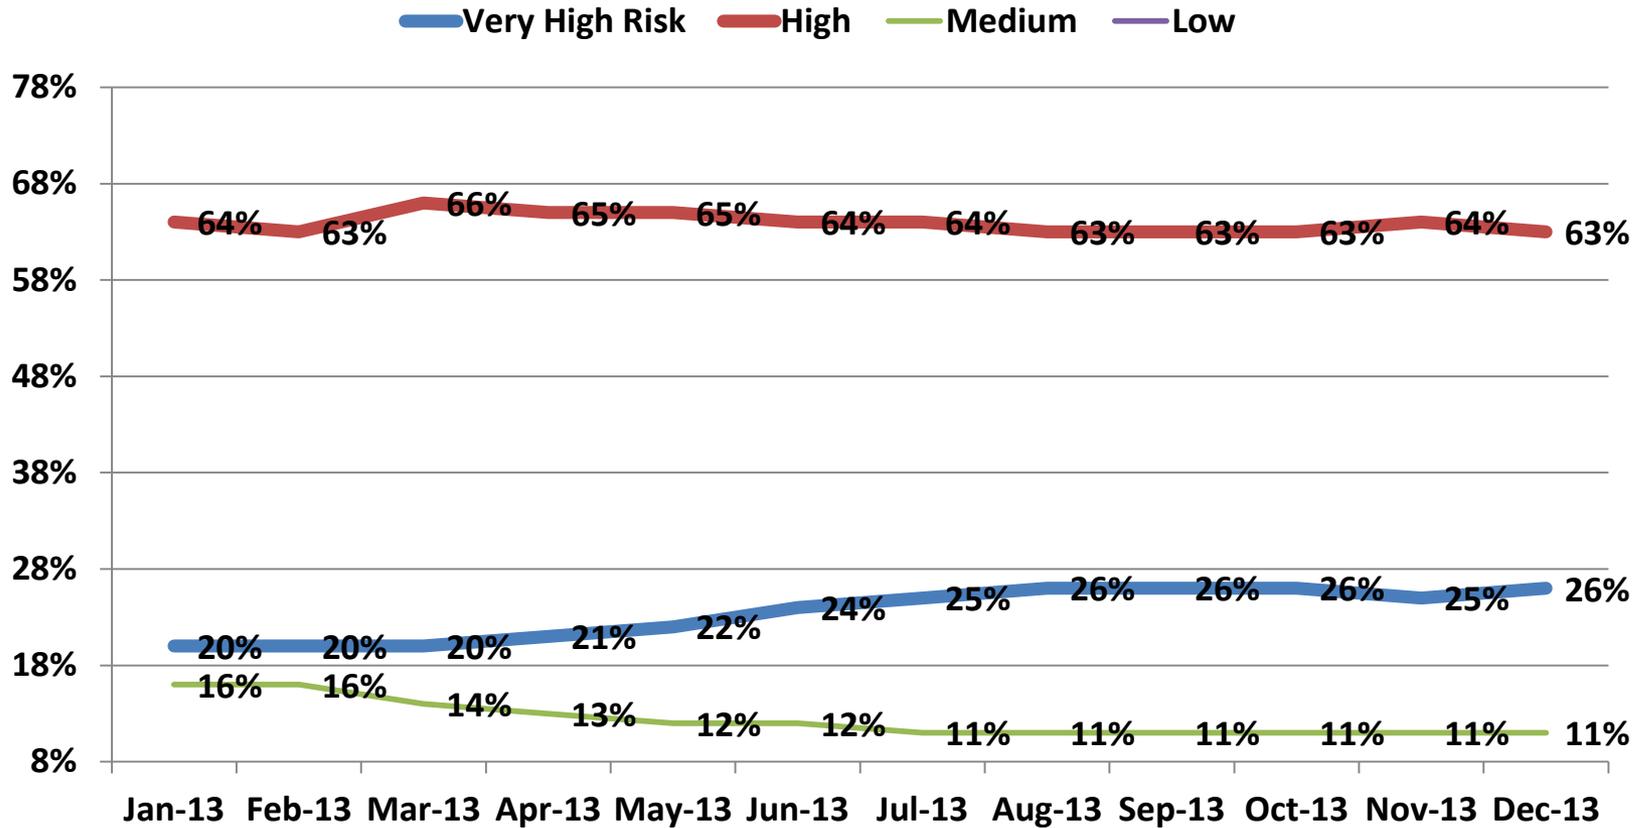

The percentage of split sentences has continued to increase, from 9% (Oct 2011-Sep 2012) to 18% (Oct 2012-Sep 2013). However, Solano County is still well under the statewide average (28%) and dramatically less than neighboring Contra Costa County (89%).

The PRCS assessed by the LS/CMI (to recidivate) has shown relatively minor variation when viewed from Jan-Dec 2013.

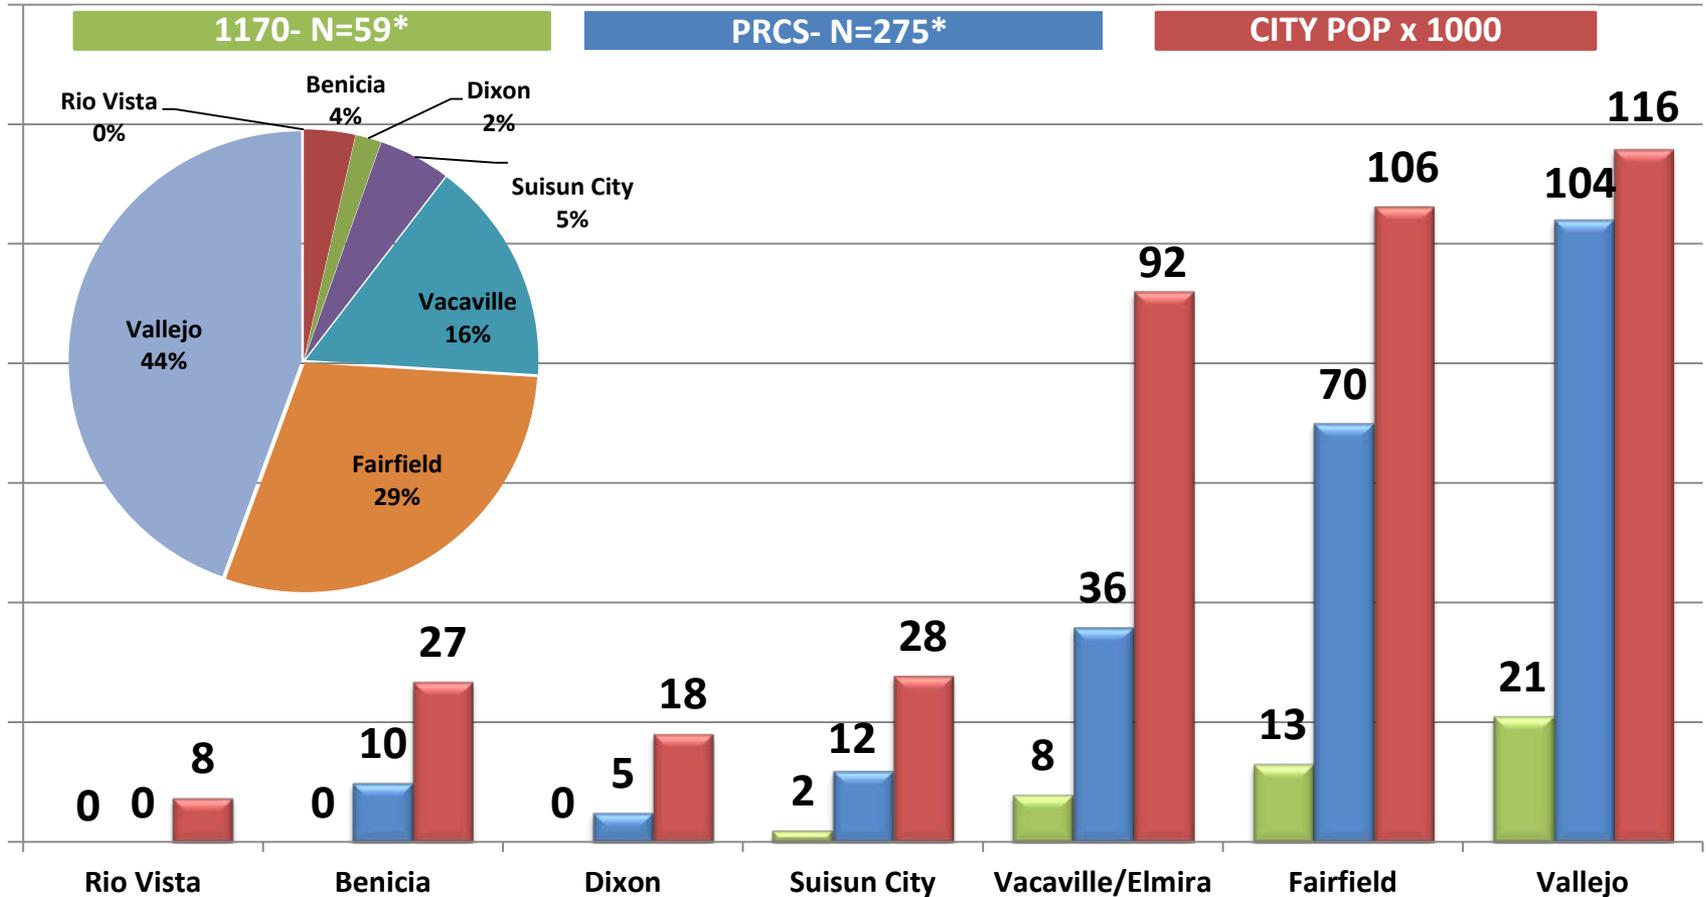

City of Residence for Supervised AB109

The highest concentrations of AB109 (N=344) per population are Vallejo & Fairfield- of the 275 PRCS, 40 (15%) consider themselves transient or homeless;

16 in Vallejo, 16 in Fairfield, 3 in Suisun City, 3 in Vacaville, 1 in Benicia, and 1 unincorporated

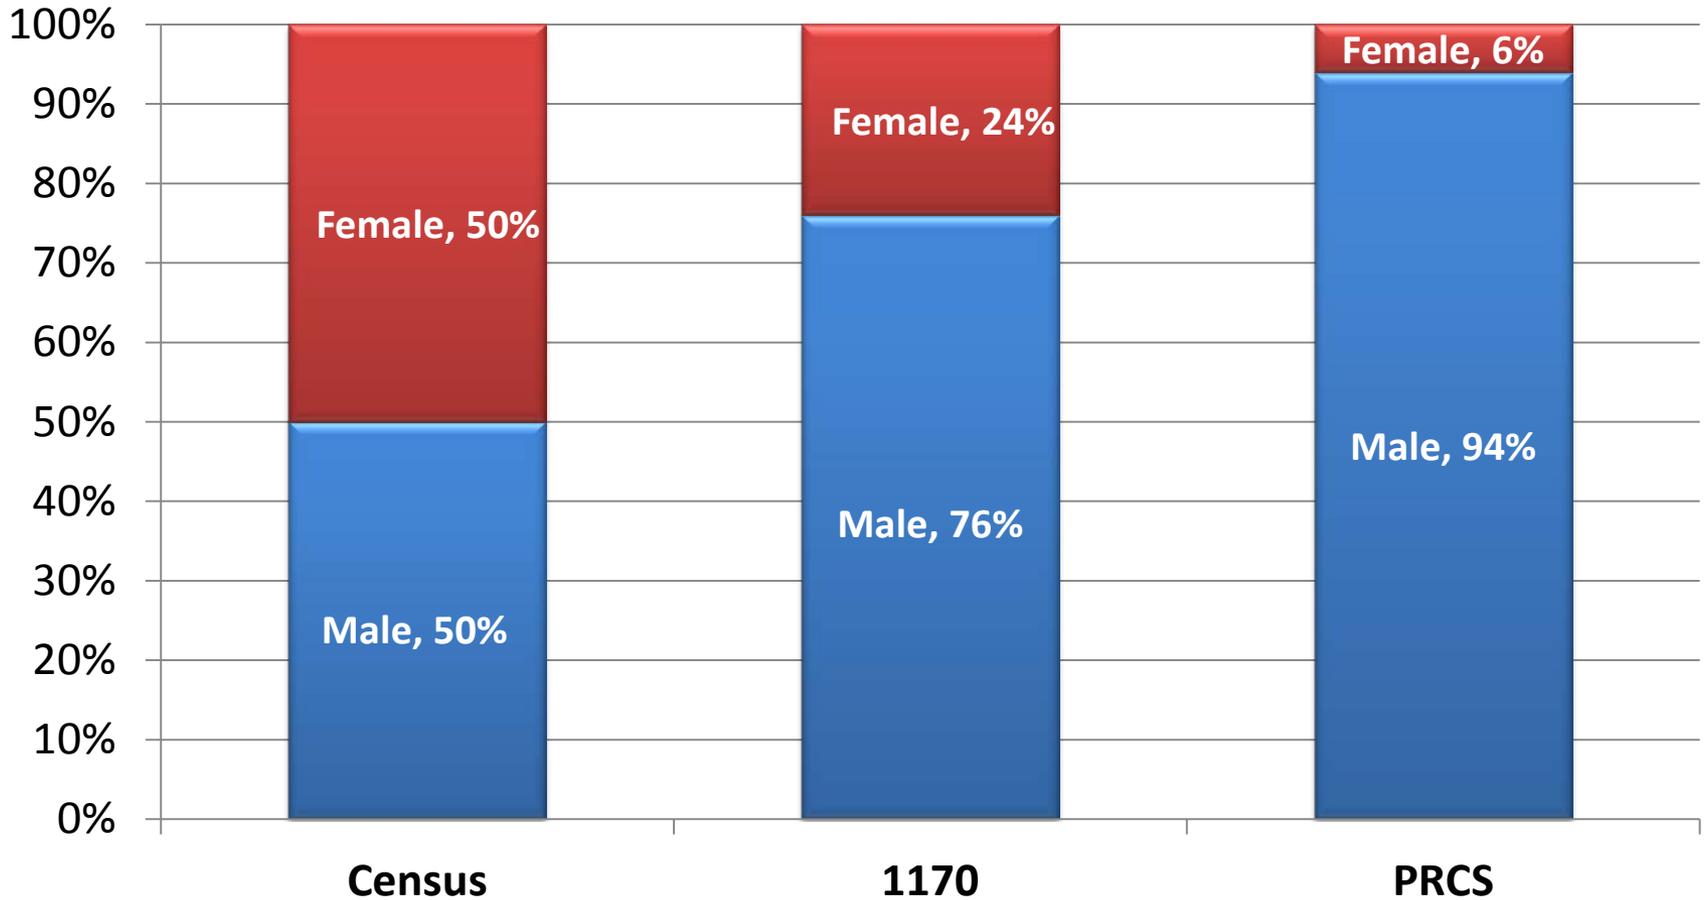

* (N=26) PRCS & (N=6) 1170 excluded with no address on file; (N=12) PRCS & (N=9) 1170 reside outside Solano County

1170 females continue to increase, up to 24% from 21%
(3 additional females) since October 2013

Gender differences between PRCS (N=275), 1170 (N=59), and Solano Census (N=413,344)

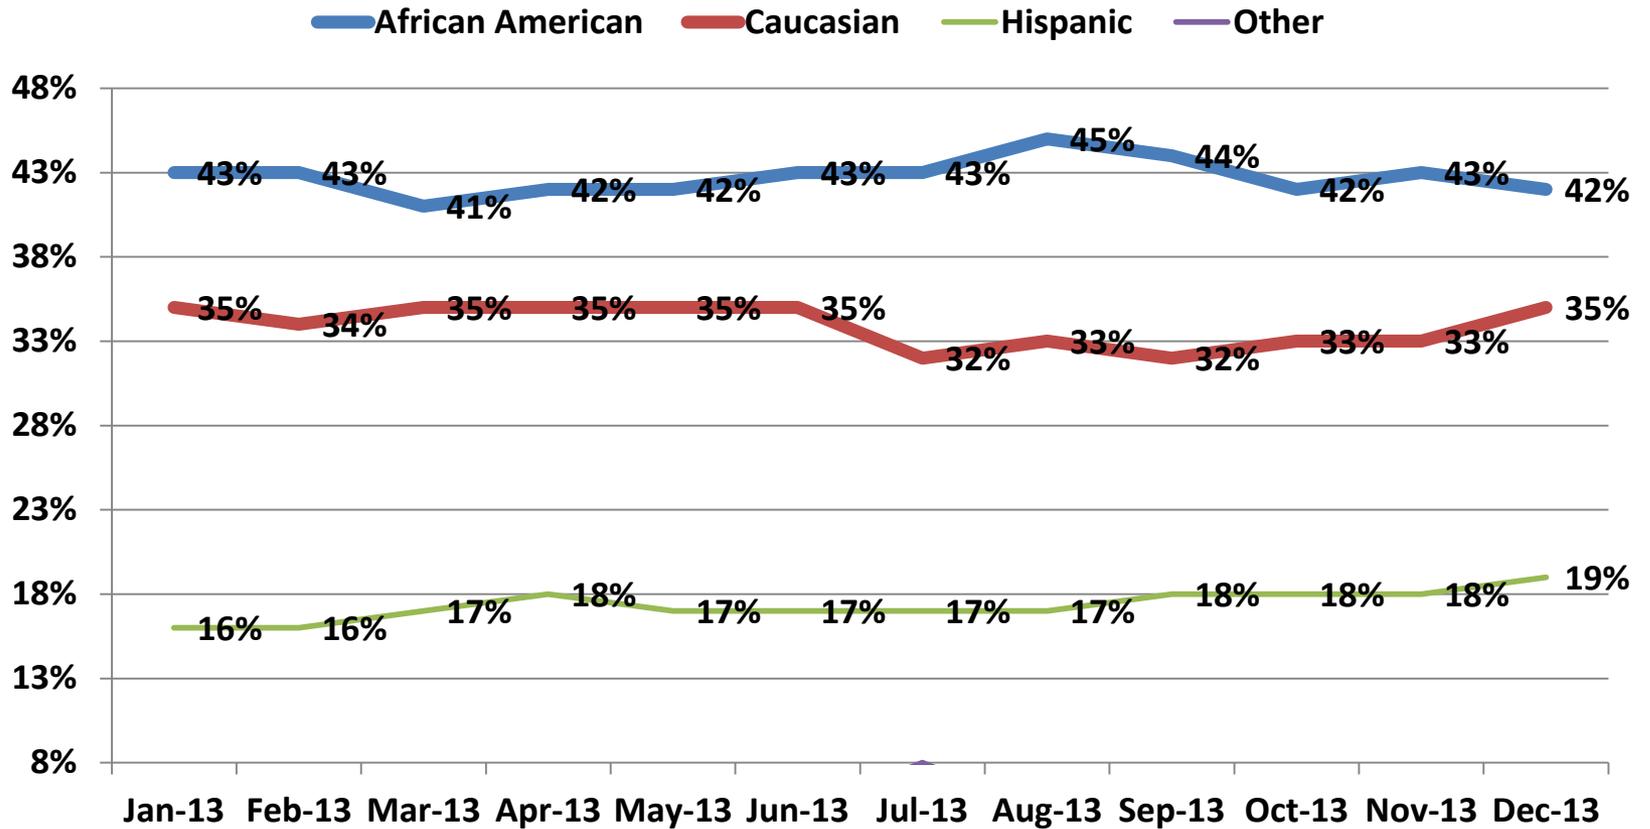

1170's are younger, on average

The age difference between 1170 and PRCS remains, with large variances in the 26-30 and 41-50 age groups

The PRCS Ethnic profile has remained consistent, keeping in line with historical data

During 2013, the number of PRCS with outstanding warrants steadily increased, as did PRCS who were in custody, reducing the number of available probationers eligible for services
