SOLANO COUNTY PARKS ARE AWAY

...BUT NOT FAR AWAY

There's a far away that's near. A getaway that can bring you closer to nature and outdoor recreational fun removing you from your daily routine.

Find what you need at Solano County Parks – a four park system of natural recreational sites where you can pursue healthy and fun outdoor activities. Lake Solano, Sandy Beach, Belden's Landing and Lynch Canyon offer visitors recreation that reflects the diverse geography and terrain of Solano County.

Spend an hour, spend a day or stay overnight. Join nearly 200,000 outdoor enthusiasts that visit every year. Bring your toys, binoculars and hiking shoes, there's a venue for a variety of outdoor activities!

THE SOLANO COUNTY EXPERIENCE

You choose the experience: Shaded shorelines along Lake Solano are reminiscent of a Mark Twain riverside setting; Sandy Beach has the only local sand beach on the Sacramento River; Belden's Landing offers a fishing pier and a boat launch accessing the Suisun Marsh; and Lynch Canyon's rolling hills, open spaces and hiking and equestrian trails preserve the County's rural heritage.

FUN & EDUCATIONAL

Solano County Parks offer nature, wildlife classes and docent-led excursions and lectures. Take a wildlife hike or enjoy a guided horseback ride. Low user fees, clean restrooms and rangers on site. Let us be the place for your family's first outdoor adventure.

STEP INTO A DIFFERENT ENVIRONMENT

Tranquility, serenity and activities await – islands of nature and recreation in a suburban environment. Celebrate the early days of Solano County history and its rural, agricultural legacy. From picnicking to camping, walking to horseback riding to jet skiing, Solano County Parks offer a diversity of recreational venues and open spaces preserved now and for the future.

VISIT TODAY

Located in each of the four corners of the county, Solano County Parks are less than a 30-minute drive for most county residents – and no park is more than an hour away via Interstate 80. Both Lake Solano and Sandy Beach are easily accessible off Interstate 5.
