1.0. INTRODUCTION

This Request for Qualification (RFQ) defines the County of Solano's (hereinafter referred to as "County") minimum requirements, solicits a Statement of Qualification, and attempts to gain adequate information by which the County may evaluate the services offered by proposers that fall within the scope of services as described in Section (3) of this RFQ.

The County on behalf of the County's Sheriff-Coroner's Office (hereinafter referred to as "Coroner"), is soliciting bids to establish firm/fixed price contract(s) with multiple qualified firm(s) to provide body remains removal and transportation services.

The County reserves the right to make an award in whole, in part, or in any combination (split bid), or to award all bid items to more than one contractor (multiple award contracts) if deemed to be in the best interest of the County. The award may not necessarily be given to the proposer with the lowest cost bid but to the proposer with a bid determined to be professionally and technically best able to render services and perform associated work in support of the County and fulfill all contract requirements

The services to be rendered are specified within guidelines of this RFQ in its entirety. This RFQ details deliverables and the terms and conditions required by the County.

2.0. BACKGROUND

Solano County is located approximately 50 miles north of San Francisco and approximately 50 miles south of Sacramento. More than 450,000 people reside in the County within an area that encompasses over 898 square miles.

The Coroner operates the County's central morgue facility located at 520 Clay Street, Fairfield, California. The Coroner retains custody of the remains of deceased persons that are within the parameters set forth in Government Code section 27491 and Health and Safety Code section 10250. Such custody requires removal and transport of the remains to a location where further investigation into the cause of death may be conducted.

The number of transports the Coroner required over the past several years is listed in the chart below. During this period, on average approximately 72% of the removals required two attendants, the remaining removals primarily required one attendant with fewer than 0.5% of the removals requiring three attendants.

Calendar Year	Number of Removals/Transports	Cumulative Total Removals/Transports
2018	360	360
2019	351	711
2020	372	1,083
2021	412	1,495
2022 partial (1/1/22 to 9/12/22)	259	1,754

B. Contractor further represents that Contractor possesses current valid appropriate licensure, including, but not limited to, driver's license, professional license, certificate of tax-exempt status, or permits, required to perform the work under this Contract.

7. INSURANCE

8. BEST EFFORTS

Contractor represents that Contractor will at all times faithfully, industriously and to the best of its ability, experience and talent, perform to County's reasonable satisfaction.

C. If County serves Contractor with a notice of default and Contractor fails to cure the default, Contractor waives any further notice of termination of this Contract.

This indemnification shall extend to claims, losses, damages, injury and liability for injuries occurring after completion of Contractor's services, as well as during the progress of rendering such services.

B. Acceptance of insurance required by this Contract does not relieve Contractor from liability under this indemnification clause. This indemnification clause shall apply to all damages or claims for damages suffered by Contractor's operations regardless if any insurance is applicable or not.

11. INDEPENDENT CONTRACTOR

A. Contractor is an independent contractor and not an agent, officer or employee of County. 12. RESPONSIBILITIES OF CONTRACTOR

A. The parties understand and agree that Contractor possesses the requisite skills necessary to perform the work under this Contract and County relies upon such skills. Contractor pledges to perform the work skillfully and professionally. County's acceptance of Contractor's work does not constitute a release of Contractor from professional responsibility.
