INFORMATION RELEASE

Marijuana Sales Case Under Investigation

September 16, 2010

Solano County Sheriff's Office

After a 4-month investigation, narcotics detectives from the Solano County Sheriff's Office served search and arrest warrants at 6 different locations throughout Northern California. They were assisted from officers from the Vacaville Police Department, Fairfield Police Department, Napa County Special Investigations Bureau, Sonoma County Narcotics Unit, Mendocino County Bureau of Narcotic Enforcement, and the Marin County Major Crimes Unit.

Cindy Harris, a 42-year-old resident of Novato was arrested on a warrant charging her with 5-counts of Sales of Marijuana, 1-count of Possession of Marijuana for Sale, and Conspiracy. She was taken into custody at a Marriott Courtyard Hotel in Fairfield. Chad Grimm, a 24-year-old resident of Sebastopol was taken into custody on the 5000 block of Turner Road in Sebastopol. He was charged with 1-count of Possession of Marijuana for Sale and Conspiracy. Jennifer Ryan, a 26-year-old Sebastopol resident was also taken into custody at the Turner Road location for 1-count of Sales of Marijuana, and Conspiracy. All 3 suspects were booked into the Solano County Jail.

A large amount of marijuana, U.S. currency, and other evidence was seized from the service of the search warrants at the various locations throughout the Northern California area. These locations include the Fairfield Tree of Life Dispensary on the 4200 block of Lozano Lane in Fairfield. Exact amount of seized marijuana and currency counts were not available at the time this press release was prepared.
